VERSION WITH MARKINGS TO SHOW CHANGES MADE

(U.S. Serial No. 09/714,024)

1. (Amended) A method of displaying a web-based spreadsheet, comprising:
- sending a request to a server to retrieve the web-based spreadsheet;
  - receiving at least part of a web page in response to the request;
  - executing information in the received web page to display the web-based spreadsheet;
  - executing information in the received web page to allow a user to enter information into the cells of the web-based spreadsheet; and
  - executing information in the received web page to update cells dependent of the cells changed by the user.

Claim 4 should be replaced with:

4. (Amended) The method of claim 1, wherein at least one cell or macro of the web-based spreadsheet contains live data that is updated periodically as the spreadsheet is being displayed.

Claim 24 should be replaced with:

24. (Amended) The method of claim 17, wherein at least one cell or macro of the web-based spreadsheet contains live data that is updated periodically as the spreadsheet is being displayed.
